Tasks completed during the month: Install volleyball lights, tile pavilion floor and assemble the Geo Dome. Spreadsheet updated.

Items not anticipated in advance: Mary Jo Wheeler-Schueller attended the meeting to explain two programs that Chevrolet is involved in that will benefit Hewitt.

1. Building Diamonds and Dreams: Chevrolet partnered with Scotts Company and Major League Baseball (MLB) to makeover 5 youth ball fields across America. Winners will receive an infield, outfield and outfield fence makeover worth 40,000.00. Wheelers of Marshfield nominated Hewitt for this contest. Residents should to go to www.chevybaseball.com and enter 54441 in the application to vote for Hewitt. By doing so, they'll also enter for a chance to win a new vehicle.
2. Chevy Youth Baseball: This program includes a baseball camp with the Woodchucks, ball bags, buckets, clipboards, t-shirts, water bottles, raffle tickets and a monetary donation. Visit this website for complete details: www.youthsportswired.com/baseball/news/2010-chevy-youth-baseball-program-kick-january

Mary Jo is also interested in sponsoring a Wheeler's night at the HARD ball games.
